About the Programme

The Young Pacific Leaders Women's Sports Programme is designed to empower emerging female leaders from the Pacific Islands in sport and physical activity through mentorship and cultural exchange. Now in its second year, the programme will run from 10 March to 29 March 2025 in Tāmaki Makaurau, Auckland, Aotearoa New Zealand.

Participants will engage in a residential week focusing on leadership development, followed by a mentorship phase where they will work with a host organisation to implement a project in their home country. The programme concludes with a final three-day gathering where participants will share their learnings and action plans for the future.

The programme is made possible by the generous support of the U.S. Department of State and is part of the Young Pacific Leaders initiative, which aims to strengthen leadership and networking in the Pacific.

“We are excited to support these 14 outstanding women who represent the future of women’s leadership in sport across the Pacific,” said Nicky van den Bos, WISPA CEO. “The Young Pacific Leaders Women’s Sports Programme provides a unique platform for these emerging leaders to grow, connect, and create lasting change in their communities.”

Pasifika Sisters in Sport Co-Chair Candice Apelu Mariner said: "The Pacific Women’s Leadership Programme is not just about personal growth, but about creating pathways for these emerging leaders to bring back tangible, lasting change to their communities. By empowering these women with the tools, mentorship, and networks they need, we are helping to build stronger, more resilient sports cultures across the Pacific. They will return home not just as leaders, but as catalysts for the next generation of women in sport."

“Sports as a platform can champion priorities such as inclusion, youth empowerment, gender equality, health and wellness, and conflict resolution. We’re proud to support this program for Young Pacific Leaders!” – U.S. Ambassador to New Zealand, Tom Udall
